

Daniel P. Scarnecchia

scarnecchia@gmail.com

<http://linkedin.com/in/scarndp>

413.320.8825

EDUCATION

- 2011 MPIA, Public and International Affairs, University of Pittsburgh
Field: Human Security
- 2009 Non-Degree Graduate Studies, Political Science, University of Massachusetts-Amherst
- 2003 B.A., University at Albany, State University of New York
Major: History

EXPERIENCE

- 2010 Intern, National Cyber Forensics & Training Alliance, Pittsburgh, PA
Researched the potential effect of Electronic Health Record adoption on the cybercrime landscape.
- 2010 Intern, Matthew B. Ridgway Center for International Security Studies, Pittsburgh, PA
- 2006-2009 Director of Information Technology/Research Analyst, Manchester, VT
Fostered a collaborative IT environment for employees and clients. Researched and wrote reports on healthcare information technology and standards and modeled the relationships between standards organizations.
- 2008 Graduate Assistant for Dr. R. Charli Carpenter
Website administration. Analyzed data on transnational advocacy networks and global agenda setting.
- 2004-2005 Domestic Order Manager, The MathWorks, Natick, MA

AWARDS

- 2011 Matthew B. Ridgway Center For International Security Studies Spring Scholarship

PAPERS (NON-REFEREED)

- 2008 “Changing the Rules: Creating a New International Standard for Compensation of Civilians Unintentionally Harmed in Conflict Zones”. Tillman, Patricia, Stephanie Boucher, Mandy Brule, Şirin Duygulu, Amy Fleig, Daniel Scarnecchia, and Anna Tomaskovic-Devey. Campaign for Innocent Victims in Conflict. December 2008. Washington, DC.

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Web development (WordPress, drupal, server administration), web design (HTML, CSS) database management, research design, statistical computing (R, SPSS)